THE PUBLIC MEETING CALLED FOR MONDAY NIGHT.

It gave me much pleasure to publish the Mayor's letter yesterday; 1, because it voiced the best sentiments of the town; 2, because it was drawn up on the lines of HERALD advice; 3, because it was timely and appropriate and sensible in all respects. Such a letter came very properly from the municipal head of Calgary and it showed that the mayor was in touch with public opinion.

We need say nothing more now in regard to the necessity of establishing a board of trade; the action of the mayor concedes the argument and calls for immediate action. We have no doubt that citizens of all shades of opinion will turn out on Monday night and make the meeting a success. We may say a word, however, in regard to the importance of co-operation among all classes of citizens, of the prime importance of "needy union"—a union of heart and hand, genuine, strong and patriotic, which will represent the Town's interests in every way possible in the future. There is already here a fine spirit of pride in the town's progress and prosperity; let us see that it does not ebb but, rather, go on steadily increasing, exemplified by a united and harmonious effort to push our town forward to a first place among the cities of Canada. We know we have the making of a prosperous city. We know that the country around us can be made to contribute to our rapid growth. We are well satisfied with the position we shall presently hold on the railway map, with roads radiating to all points of the compass. We have the best of reasons for believing that other railways to be built will greatly extend the legitimate commercial sphere which we may fairly call our own. We have confidence in believing that our merchants of today and those who will be attracted to Calgary will find means of utilizing the commerce which will be tributary to us. But there remains to us the duty of making known to the world the merits of our town and its true position, of filling up the adjacent country with prosperous settlers, of promoting the establishment of factories within the town, and of fostering enterprises which will contribute to our population and wealth and general progress. To bring about these desirable ends unit action on the part of our citizens is necessary. "A long pull, a strong pull" and especially "a pull all together" is needed, that every best means may be taken for starting our town on an assured career of genuine prosperity. We can't afford in Calgary to be pulling apart. We can't afford in regard to the material interests of the place. We can't afford to have even an indifferent element among us. Every man and every woman should be a worker in the Town's interests, and under the lead of an intelligent organization, such as is proposed, with the people all determined and united in propelling the car of progress, there can for Calgary be no such word as fail.

A MANIA FOR MARRYING.

A Gay Deceiver who has Six Wives.

Alexander Vashon, a Frenchman, was arrested on the steamer Olympia at 11 a.m. on Sunday, and locked up in a steel cell charged with bigamy. Vashon, from his own confession, has wives in almost all portions of the country. He was extremely interesting. He was born in the city of Quebec and is 37 years old. When 22 he sold his enterprise to the United States. In 1884 he married Miss Lizzie Stock at Wabaton, Dak., and after a brief marriage remained here. After a year of married happiness he sold his wife and went to Canada. His wife then secured a divorce, but his testimony on that point is generally disbelieved. From Hades Vashon went to Minneapolis, where he married Lizzie Chisholm. A little over a year ago, when the women we about to become the wives of Yakima Indians, he sold his wife and adventure was at Pennington, Dak., where he made love to two girls, Miss Ella Fael and Miss Jennie Van Horn. He became engaged to both and appointed a date for the wedding. His intimacy with Miss Fael was of a erotic nature. He settled the matter by giving her a deed to a pre-emption claim, and taking Miss Van Horn to Minneapolis, and taking Miss Van Horn to Minneapolis, and married her, under the assumed name of Alexander Marcellin. Vashon lived with No. 4 two weeks. After describing his life, he said he had been married to his wife No. 2 located in St. Paul at about the same time. He had a desire to see her and came to Seattle. She saw him passing the house, told her father of his presence in the city, and he was arrested. Vashon was then taken to a hospital for a reconciliation, but the Chinese family announced their determination to vigorously prosecute the case. Vashon is a typical French-Canadian. He is tall, stout, and a brute. He is rather good looking, has small black eyes and a dimpled spider.
